

Faculty may not accept private remuneration from students currently enrolled in their classes for tutoring. Private tutoring for which faculty receives a fee is not permitted on campus; College equipment may not be used for such private tutoring.