Nursing Department
Application Review and Selection Process

Review of all applications will be conducted within two weeks of the end of each application period, unless otherwise publicized. Upon completion of that review, students will be divided into two categories:

1. Students who have completed ALL admission criteria will be considered first.
2. Students who have completed some admission criteria and/or some required program coursework but have not completed all will be considered next. This includes students who are currently completing required pre-admission coursework or have not yet received a 60% or higher on the TEAS exam.

Within each category, student applications will then be ranked using the following items to provide an overall score:

1. GPA in required Nursing pre-
